

Family Medicine Physician Faculty
University of Utah Neurobehavior HOME Program

The Department of Family and Preventive Medicine, Division of Family Medicine, is looking for outstanding physician educators to join our multi-disciplinary faculty. This position will involve direct patient care in a state of the art, multidisciplinary clinic at the University Neurobehavior HOME program, which serves children and adults with developmental disabilities. For more information on the HOME (Healthy Outcomes Medical Excellence) Program, please click on the following link: <http://healthcare.utah.edu/uni/home/>

Qualifications

1. Board certification by The American Board of Family Medicine
2. Unrestricted Utah State medical license
3. Experience in clinical medicine, teaching and scholarship is preferred.

Responsibilities

- 0.8 FTE - Direct patient care activities, including on service teaching of Family Medicine residents, medical students, and physician assistant students
- 0.1 FTE – Clinic Attending of Residents
- 0.1 FTE - Education and scholarship
 - Scholarly projects
 - Teaching in didactic and small group formats
 - Mentorship and evaluation of residents

We are committed to excellence in patient care, the highest standard of training for medical students and residents, and participation in multi-disciplinary scholarship. If you share this passion for excellence, we invite you to become an integral part of our Family Medicine faculty team.

Please submit application to: <http://utah.peopleadmin.com/postings/60797>.

For additional information, contact Jennifer Leiser, MD, at Jennifer.leiser@hsc.utah.edu.

“University of Utah Health is a patient focused center distinguished by collaboration, excellence, leadership, and Respect. University of Utah Health values candidates who are committed to fostering and furthering the culture of compassion, collaboration, innovation, accountability, diversity, integrity, quality, and trust that is integral to the mission of University of Utah Health.”

The University of Utah is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer and does not discriminate based upon race, national origin, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, status as a person with a disability, genetic information, or Protected Veteran status. Individuals from historically underrepresented groups, such as minorities, women, qualified persons with disabilities and protected veterans are encouraged to apply. Veterans’ preference is extended to qualified applicants, upon request and consistent with University policy and Utah state law. Upon request, reasonable accommodations in the application process will be provided to individuals with disabilities. To inquire about the University’s nondiscrimination or affirmative action policies or to request disability accommodation, please contact: Director, Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, 201 S. Presidents Circle, Rm 135, (801) 581-8365.

The University of Utah values candidates who have experience working in settings with students from diverse backgrounds, and possess a strong commitment to improving access to higher education for historically underrepresented students.