

Developing and Sustaining Collaborations with Communities and Stakeholders

An interactive workshop presented by:
Collaboration and Engagement Team
Utah Center for Clinical and Translational Science

Friday, Dec. 1, 2017

Noon – 4 p.m.

Public Health Classroom 203
375 Chipeta Way, Salt Lake City

Who should attend: Anyone who is interested in collaborating with communities and patient

Registration is required and is $25

Topics to be addressed in the workshop:

Getting to know the community and identifying partners

- Initial contact and meetings: begin building trust
- Identifying and communicating with individuals for advisory boards, patient partners, expert community consultations, etc.

Collaborating with communities throughout the research “life-cycle”

- Follow-up meetings to identify and discuss a potential project
- Maintaining contact while waiting for grant proposal feedback
- Collaborating throughout a funded project
- Equitable relationships, communication, compensation, data sharing, presentations, publications, etc.
- Ways to proceed if a grant proposal is not funded
- Disengaging from a community when a project ends

Lunch/snacks will be provided and each participant will receive an electronic and hard copy engagement manual. Registration closes on Nov. 17, 2017

Register here: <http://conta.cc/2zzCeSB>

Contact Heather Coulter, CCTS Community Liaison: heather.coulter@utah.edu with any questions

