

Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology

Billing Information

You will receive a statement from our department for the following services only:

- Office visits and exams by your physician or physician's assistant
- Out-patient/office procedures performed by you provider
- Professional fee for surgery by your physician
- Obstetric care and/or delivery by your physician
- Diagnostic tests, ultrasounds, etc. performed in the OB/GYN Diagnostic Center or Utah Center for Reproductive Medicine
- Genetic Counseling
- Inpatient/Emergency room physician fees

Separate billing may come from the University Hospital or other physicians for services performed by them. Examples of these services would be:

- Nursing or related charges such as supplies used in the clinic
- Laboratory and pathology services
- Diagnostic tests such as x-rays received in the hospital
- Hospital charges relating to surgery or childbirth
- Anesthesiology charges

We submit insurance claims to carriers as a courtesy to our patients. To assist us in assuring that all claims are submitted correctly, please provide the following:

- Correct and clear insurance information
- Referrals from primary care providers
- Medicaid referrals and current Medicaid card if applicable

The patient has the ultimate responsibility for settlement of all medical charges. Questions regarding our bills and statements can be directed to the patient account representatives located in the OB/GYN clinic or by calling our credit and collections office at 585-5172.

Hospital billing questions should be referred to 297-4891 or the phone number printed on your statement from them.
