

Family Medicine Physician Clinical Faculty Combined Hospital/Outpatient Clinic

We invite you to join the multidisciplinary faculty of the Department of Family and Preventive Medicine in the School of Medicine, University of Utah. We are expanding our clinical and educational programs in the Division of Family Medicine. This position involves direct patient care in a high-acuity academic inpatient setting and in our family medicine outpatient clinics. You will be joining a strong family medicine faculty group and have opportunities for teaching family medicine residents, medical students, and other health science trainees.

Qualifications

1. Board certification by The American Board of Family Medicine
2. Unrestricted Utah State medical license
3. Experience in clinical medicine, teaching and scholarship is preferred.

Responsibilities

- 0.5 FTE – Inpatient care on the University of Utah Hospital hospitalist team
- 0.3-0.4 FTE – Outpatient care at our faculty/resident ambulatory clinics
- 0.1-0.2 FTE – Other education and scholarship

The vision of the Department of Family and Preventive Medicine is “Expanding the Possibilities of Health.” We are a strong multi-disciplinary department committed to diversity and inclusion, and to excellence in our core missions of clinical care, education, research and scholarship, and community engagement. The University of Utah is internationally known for its innovative programs in the transformation of health care. We invite you to explore the quality of life in Salt Lake City, the growing capital of our increasingly diverse state. We enjoy rich cultural opportunities in our urban core, along with unparalleled access to the outdoors.

Please submit application to: <http://utah.peopleadmin.com/postings/81283>

For additional information, contact: Jennifer Leiser, MD at jennifer.leiser@hsc.utah.edu

The University of Utah was founded in 1850, is a member of the PAC-12, is ranked as one of the top US public research universities, and is particularly distinguished in medicine, genetics, and engineering. Located in Salt Lake City adjacent to the beautiful Wasatch Mountains, the University of Utah is the flagship institution of higher learning in Utah, serving over 31,000 students, including over 2,000 international students and scholars from over 114 different countries. Candidates should submit a cover letter and curriculum vitae, along with the completed application.

University of Utah Health is a patient focused center distinguished by collaboration, excellence, leadership, and Respect. University of Utah Health values candidates who are committed to fostering and furthering the culture of compassion, collaboration, innovation, accountability, diversity, integrity, quality, and trust that is integral to the mission of University of Utah Health.

The University of Utah is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer and does not discriminate based upon race, national origin, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, status as a person with a disability, genetic information, or Protected Veteran status. Individuals from historically underrepresented groups, such as minorities, women, qualified persons with disabilities and protected veterans are encouraged to apply. Veterans' preference is extended to qualified applicants, upon request and consistent with University policy and Utah state law. Upon request, reasonable accommodations in the application process will be provided to individuals with disabilities. To inquire about the University's nondiscrimination or affirmative action policies or to request disability accommodation, please contact: Director, Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, 201 S. Presidents Circle, Rm 135, (801) 581-8365.

The University of Utah values candidates who have experience working in settings with students from diverse backgrounds, and possess a strong commitment to improving access to higher education for historically underrepresented students.