

Former Department Post-Doc Student Testifies In front of Congressional Subcommittee

Dr. Tommy Rock, a former post-doctoral student in Occupational and Environmental Health, recently testified in front of a congressional sub-committee regarding uranium exposures on his tribal lands. Dr. Rock mentions his affiliation with us during his introduction and around 1 hour and 6 minutes in the following video.

Energy and Mineral Resources Subcommittee Hearing Event YouTube Video

In addition, Dr. Rock was also interviewed and appeared in two articles in the Salt Lake Tribune and Indianz.com. Those articles can be viewed below.

Salt Lake Tribune Article

Indianz.com Article