

How to Access AAO E-Books

The Bloomberg Ophthalmology Library has acquired online access to a number of AAO publications, including:

Focal Points

Basic Clinical and Science Course 2015-2016 \(BCSC\)

Practical Ophthalmology: A Manual for Beginning Residents

Basic Principles of Ophthalmic Surgery

Basic Techniques of Ophthalmic Surgery

These books are available online from the AAO e-library. They can be accessed from anywhere with an internet connection, both on campus and remotely, and can support unlimited simultaneous users.

Full text access is available through the Moran subscription; you do NOT need to login with a username and password. You should see the “University of Utah” label in the upper right hand corner, verifying that you’re accessing the paid subscription:

How to Download AAO E-Books

If you will be without an internet connection – or simply prefer the convenience of using these resources offline, the books can be downloaded to either your desktop OR to a mobile device. The instructions below provide an example of downloading a BCSC volume to an iPad.

1. Using the browser connection on your iPad, go to: <http://elibrary.aao.org/> (NOTE: You must be on a university network connection).
2. Locate the title/volume you would like to download to your device:

The screenshot displays the AAO eLibrary interface. At the top, the AAO logo and name are visible, along with a search bar and navigation links. The main content area shows the title "2014-2015 Basic and Clinical Science Course, Section 01: Update on General Medicine". Below the title, there is a "Download" button with a download icon. To the left of the main content, there is a "User Login" section with fields for Username and Password, and a "Login" button. The "Download" button is highlighted, indicating the next step in the process.

3. Near the bottom of the page, find the Download option and tap on it.
4. If this is your first time downloading from the AAO site, you will need to install the free iPublishReader app onto your device. If you don't already have the app, you will be prompted to install it when you tap on the Download option for the book. Here's what that looks like:

You need to install an application (iPublishCentral Reader) to read the e-book offline.
Please download and install the application appropriate for your device

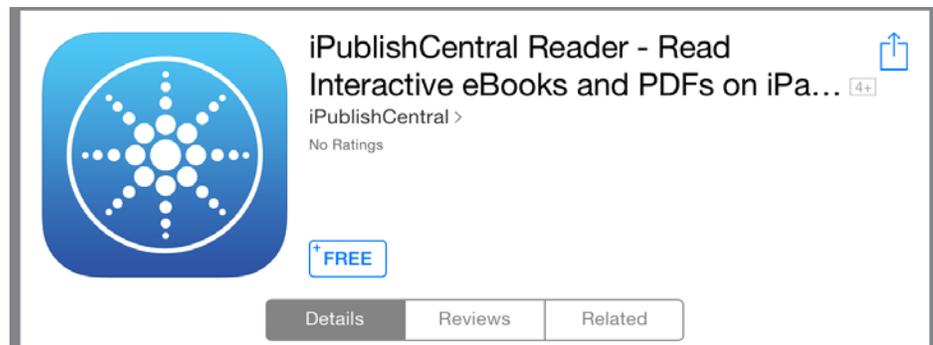

iPublishCentral Reader for iPad

If you have downloaded the appropriate application click on the download icon to continue downloading the title

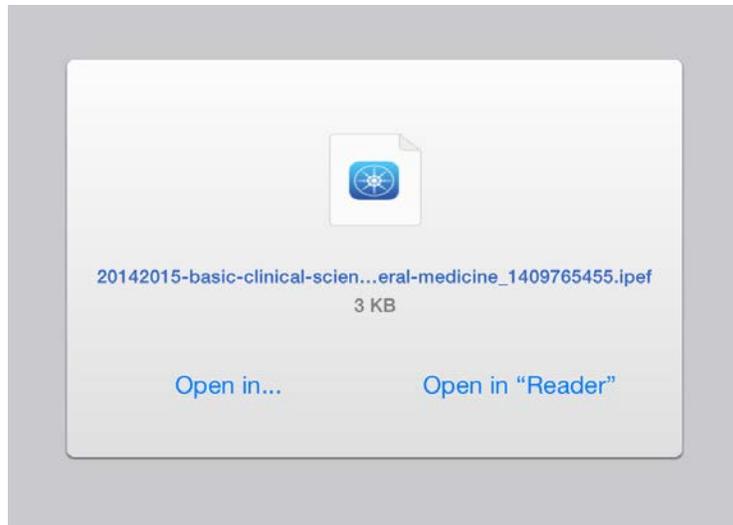

The book can be downloaded only once per session

5. Tap on iPublisherCentral Reader for iPad. This will open the iTunes App Store to the correct app you need to install:

6. Tap on Free to start downloading the app to your device.
7. After your app has installed, return to the AAO web page for the title you want to download and tap on the Download option. You will be prompted to specify how your device should handle the download:

8. Tap on Open in “Reader”. This will download the book content to your iPublisherCentralReader book shelf:

9. That's it! To enjoy reading the book offline, tap on the iPublisherCentral Reader app on your device and your downloaded AAO content will be on your bookshelf.
