

University of Utah
Division of Plastic Surgery
Research Policy

The Division of Plastic Surgery residents are encouraged to be actively involved in research activities throughout their training.

Each resident is required to submit at least one abstract per year during the plastic surgery years.

Division research meetings are held quarterly.

A division research grant is awarded twice a year in August and February at the research quarterly meetings. Applications are available upon request.