Project ECHO – We may not be Amazon, but we are breaking down the walls between specialty and primary care
Paula Cook, MD & Christina Choate, Lead Program Coordinator

Project ECHO (Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes) is a movement to demonopolize knowledge and amplify healthcare provider capacity to provide best practice care. Opioid, Addiction, & Pain ECHO at the University of Utah began in July 2018 and is led by a team of experts in psychiatry, pain management, and pharmacy to address opioid use disorder and interventional treatments for pain.
